[Council to Mr. Thomas Donellan]

Sir We request you to send forward to the Head of Elk, all the Flour you have in your Possession and have it delivered to Col<sup>o</sup> Henry Hollingsworth. You will, in executing this Order, take care to reserve as much at your Post as may be wanted for immediate Consumption. M<sup>r</sup> Stevenson one of the Commissioners for Baltimore County informs us he has a large Quantity of Flour still in his Possession, you will call on him for it immediately.

[Council to Colo. Henry Hollingsworth]

Sir A Letter from the Commander in Chief, represents the Distress of the Army for want of Flour, to be exceeding great, and we are called on by Congress to send a Supply immediately, and do request you to deliver to Col<sup>o</sup> Yeates, all you have on Hand or may receive from M<sup>r</sup> Donnellan, or any of the Commissaries to be forwarded with the utmost Dispatch to Head Quarters. Let us know what Provision you have received since your last Return.
