

Purpose, has prompted us to send a Flag to New York with Necessaries and to solicit your Assistance Joshua Loring Esq<sup>r</sup> Commissary of Prisoners, in his Letter to Col<sup>o</sup> Ramsay, says, the Commanding Officer in New York will admit of our sending only such Supplies as will be necessary for the immediate Use of the Officers, but he cannot think of allowing any Kind of Traffic. This Permission, though not soe extensive as we wish enables us to afford Relief to our Officers from Time to Time. We request you to engage such a Vessel as you esteem suitable for that Purpose, as speedily as possible and that you would purchase 4 thousand Pounds of Bacon or Pork; if you think you cannot procure it immediately, inform us as soon as you can, and what Expectation you have of Success, We prepose to send, besides the Bacon 66 Barrels of Flour, some Rum, Sugar Coffee and Tea and shall have £100 Gold to distribute amongst the Officers, Mrs. Chamier having engaged to pay that Sum in New York to our Order.

[Council to Mr. Thomas Donellan]

Sir We received yours of the 13th Ins<sup>t</sup> When we directed you to forward the Flour, it was not our Intention that such as was not fit for the use of the Army should be sent, but, that you should observe our former Instructions on that Head.
