

December 1 Inhabitants of Bermuda, under certain restrictions to carry Corn from this State for the relief of the distressed Inhabitants of that Island in Consequence of which your Memorialist procured a Vessel with one Thousand Bushels Salt, and proceeded to Baltimore where he has safely landed the full Qnt^y and is in no doubt but it will be properly distributed to the Inhabitants of the State. Your Memorialist therefore begs permission to ship Corn agreeable to Law, and also to be indulged with taking a less Qnt^y of Corn, and be permitted to carry a small Qnt^y of other provision instead of Corn, as the Inhabitants of that distressed Island exists by Trade, of which at this unhappy Period they are precluded, and for want of the necessaries for the support of Life some hundreds of them have actually perished

Your Memorialist relying on the Philanthropy of your Excellency and Council, hopes the Indulgence he prays for will be granted
