The following ingrossed Address, viz.

To his Excellency Thomas Bladen Esq^{re} Governor of Maryland.

The humble Address of the House of Delegates of the said Province

May it please your Excellency,

We are obliged to your Excellency for communicating to us the Letter and Papers from Governor Clinton, relating to the six Nations of Indians in Amity with us; on which occasion we presume to observe, that this Province the last year was at great Expence to preserve the Friendship of those People, and then had from them the strongest Assurances of their Fidelity and unshaken Attachment to the British Dominion, and being satisfied this Province has not done any Act to occasion a Breach of those Engagements, we doubt not but a due Regard to their own Safety and Interest, and to the Promises and Professions they so solemnly then made, will be sufficient Motives with them to preserve a good Understanding and
