

U. H. J. ever made; but when a small part of that House by the most Violent Liber No. 34 Means usurped the whole Authority as well Legislative, as Executive, which is such a Precedent as We hope You will not think for your Purpose, had You been pleased to have contented Yourselves with Asserting that it was your undoubted Right to begin a Money Bill in your House, We could at this time for the sake of dispatch, forbore to have made any Observation on such an Assertion, But We hope You will not think We act beside Our Duty in letting you know what Objections We have to any Money Bills, so that you may if they are reasonable remove them and make the Bill proper for its passage here Secondly You say some of the Amendments are unnecessary, and others tend to lessen the Advantage which may be made for the Garrison of Louisburgh, As You do not Particularize which of them, and why they are unnecessary We cannot be Satisfied barely by such a General Allegation that they are so; and as to the other Part of a Proposal of Expediting Our intended supply of Provision so as not to be prevented by the frost or remitting A Sum of Money immediately without Loss of time or Expence of Commission and Charges can tend to lessen any Advantage for the Garrison of Louisburgh We must Acknowledge Ourselves mistaken in Judgment

We did Assent in Our former Message on the Subject of this Bill and now avowedly repeat, that the Establishing a Fund for raising a Sum of Money for the Support of an Agent is foreign to his Majestys Service in general and were we inclinable to enter into the reasoning You have made use of on this Occasion We might prove beyond any reasonable Contradiction that the Agency designed by the Bill would be so far preserving or procuring Ease and tranquility to his Subjects that it would be the greatest foundation of disturbances in this Province but it is sufficient for us to say that in Parliamentary Language on the subject of any Money Bill no Clause was ever lookt on as relative to his Majestys Service, or proper for such Bill which did not either immediately grant Money p. 66 to his Majesty or to his Use or was an Appendix to some other Bill which had before Granted Money to his Majesty, And when any Instance can be produced contrary to this Observation, We shall own our Assertion to be as improper as Yours of your House having alone the Right to raise Money

The same Arguments by which you urge this Agency to be for his Majestys Service, may prove every Suit at Law between private Persons for the Recovery of a Debt, to be also for his Majestys Service since it tends to the quietness & Satisfaction of his Subjects, perhaps in a more eminent manner than this Agency would do, And yet it must be Granted that a Man would not thought to know what he said, if he should think his Majestys Service concerned in almost thing that happened in Society
