Col^o Hollyday delivers the following Report

At A Conference Appointed by the Upper and Lower Houses of Assembly relating to an Officers Fee Bill on Fryday the 30 day of August 1745

Were Present

the hoñble { James Hollyday Esq^r
Benjamin Young Esq^r } of the Upper House

M^r Philip Hammond Col^o Henry Hooper }
Doctor Charles Carroll Major Sheredine } Of the Lower House
Col^o Thomas Colvill M^r Rob^t Lloyd }

Who made Choice of M^r Richard Dorsey for their Clerk & then proceeded to Business; When the Conferees of the Upper House proposed that the Duration that the Bill should have be first Considered upon which the Conferees agreed to Resort back to their respective Houses for Information therein

At the next Meeting the Conferees of the Lower House said that it was the Opinion of their House that the Bill should have its duration for seven Years and to the end of the next Session of Assembly which should happen after the Expiration of the said seven Years which the Conferees of the Upper House declared to be agreable to the sence of their House

At the following Meeting it was proposed by the Conferees of the Upper House that the fees should be settled either in Current Money or Tobacco absolutely, but before the Conferees came to any Resolution thereon both Parties Resorted back to their respective Houses again, And at the next Meeting the Conferees of the Lower House informed the Conferees of the Upper House that the sence of their House was that the several Officers fees should be settled in Tobacco, to which the Conferees of the Upper House agreed
