

[Jas Calhoun Baltimore to Gov. Lee]

October 21

Sir Since my last to you of the 16th I have purchased seventy Barrels of Flour and could have got as much more if I had been able to pay for it but am intirely out of Continental money and the Millers will not take the new Emissions of 1 for 40 until I get a farther supply

I have received but about £22.000 for the whole of the orders you drew in my favour and am not likely to get much more for the Collectors say the greater part of their Collections is either in Certificates or new money, Capt<sup>n</sup> Sam<sup>l</sup> Godman, refuses to pay the order drawn on him alledging, he has an Acco<sup>t</sup> against the State for the hire of a Vessel. It was not in my power to present it sooner as he has been abroad ever since I got it until within these few days. If it is in your power to send me a supply of Money please do so as this is the best season to make purchases flour begins to come in tolerable plenty & now sells at £70 7 C<sup>t</sup>

[Moses Rawlings Baltimore to His Excellency
Thomas S. Lee Esqr.]

Sir I have the honour to beg Your Excellency, would have the men forwarded to fort Frederick, as a guard to the British prisoners.

For I am apprehensive there will be some Difficulty in geting the Militia in Time, I think there men will answer for garrison Duty.

[Geo. P. Keeports, Baltimore, to Gov. Lee]
