

August 27
Liber No. 78
p. 260

[Council to Capt George Keepports.]

You will immediately send hither all the Arms with the Accoutrements lately received from Philadelphia, and the two brass field Pieces with their Ammunition and Apparatus. There is a further Demand for one hundred and sixty Blankets which you will procure immediately and forward as soon as possible, you'll give us Information by the Return of the Express of the Number of Cartridges, p. 261 you have made and the Quantity of Lead not run up, If you have not already sent the Blankets mentioned in ours of the 25th you will send with them ninety Stand of Arms (if you cannot send the whole by the Time) to compleat the 3<sup>d</sup> regiment, also one Ream of Letter and three reams of common Paper.

Ibid.

[Council to Genl Smallwood.]

We are honored with yours of this Day and in Consequence thereof have wrote to Baltimore to forward the Arms and the Blankets if procurable, immediately to this place, as it is probable these Articles will not be down by the Time you mention, and as our flesh Provisions may be exhausted before a Supply is received, we cannot help expressing our Desire that the third regiment may be ordered to march as soon as possible and the Articles wanted, if they can be obtained, shall follow them.
