The House adjourns until Tomorrow Morning at 8 of the Clock.

Wednesday Morning, June 5, 1751.

June 5
 P. 147

The House met according to Adjournment: The Members were called, and all appeared as yesterday. The Proceedings of yesterday were read.

On a further Consideration of the Advertisement set up by Charles Carroll, Esq; Resolved, That the Advertisement fixed up at the Door of this House by Charles Carroll, Esq; a powerful and leading Roman Catholic, contains Matters scandalous and malicious, reflecting upon the Proceedings of this House in general, and a Member thereof in particular; and is a Violation of the Rights and Privileges of this House.

Thereupon, Ordered, That the said Charles Carroll, Esq; be taken into Custody by the Serjeant attending this House.

On motion of a Member, that the Word false be inserted in the above Resolve; the Question was put, Whether the Word false shall be inserted in the above Resolve; or Not? Resolved in the Negative.

For the Negative.
