

L. H. J. Warriors of the Six Nations, in their travelling through this Province to war with the Catawbaws: The latter being in Friendship with the English as well as the former, we humbly conceive that such Supply might be taken as Encouragement to such Warring; and as those People are expert at Hunting, and require little Supply but what that affords, we therefore do not think proper to interfere, or agree that any Charge should be brought on the Public for that Purpose.

Liber No. 47
June 7

Which was read and assented to, and signed by Order of the House by the Honourable Speaker.

p. 172 Ordered, That Col. Colvill and Mr. Hyland do acquaint his Excellency, that this House hath prepared an Address to him, and desires to know when and where he will please to receive it: They return, and acquaint Mr. Speaker, that his Excellency signified he would receive the Address immediately in the Conference Chamber.

Ordered, That Mr. Stoddert and three more do present the Address.
