No. 5 An Act to annex certain Extra-parochial Lands, lying between Nassaongo Creek and Accongo Branch in Worcester County, to the Parish of Allhallows.

[Preamble] Whereas, by the humble Petition of sundry Inhabitants of that Part of a Place called the Indian-Town, in the County of Worcester, which lies between Nassaongo Creek and Accongo Branch, it is represented to this General Assembly, that all that Tract or Parcel of Land lying and being in the Indian-Town aforesaid, between Nassaongo Creek and Accongo Branch aforesaid, is not at present within the Bounds or Limits of any Parish; and that the Parish Church of Allhallows is the most convenient Place for the Inhabitants aforesaid to attend Divine Worship; and pray, that the Extra-parochial Lands aforesaid may be annexed to the aforesaid Parish of Allhallows: And this General Assembly having taken the Premises into Consideration, and thought the same reasonable, it is humbly prayed that it may be Enacted:

[Lands mentioned in this Act, to be annexed to Allhallows Parish.] And be it Enacted by the Right Honourable the Lord Proprietary, by and with the Advice and Consent of his Lordship's Governor, and the Upper and Lower Houses of Assembly, and the Authority of the same, That all that Tract or Parcel of Extra-parochial Land, situate, lying, and being in the Place commonly called and known by the Name of the Indian Town, between the Creek called Nassaongo Creek and Accongo Branch, in Worcester County aforesaid, after the End of this present Session of Assembly, shall be, and it is hereby annexed unto Allhallows Parish in the County aforesaid. And it is
