

Army, for the Purpose of paying such noncommissioned Officers and Soldiers, as have not received the Advance ordered by the Assembly. We confined the Appropriation to the noncommissioned Officers and Soldiers, upon a Presempment that the commissioned Officers had already received, at least, a Part of the Advance ordered by the Assembly, and because we have been informed that the Soldiers not receiving any Part of the former Supply, was a Source not only of great Discontent, but had actually produced Mutiny and Desertion among them. The Bills, as before mentioned, being appropriated, it is not in our Power to furnish you with any Part of them. We hope the Intendant will be able to procure, by the Sales of Specifics &^{ca}, as much hard Cash as you may want, and we beg you to believe that it will give us great Pleasure to concur in any Measures for that Purpose

Within these few Weeks past, we have paid an immense Sum of Money for Houses damaged and destroyed in this City by the Soldiery, during the Winter. There was some Pretence for this Conduct, in the Severity of the Winter and when the Soldiers were but badly supplied with Wood; but at this Season, and when Wood is plentifully furnished, it is unpardonable, and yet the Practice is continued in as great a Degree as ever. We beg, if it be practicable, that some expedient may be fallen upon to prevent this wanton Destruction of Property.
