

Execution against Gerrard Hopkins for Parsons dues:—in rendering Judgment for Jos. Scarborough against Gerrard Hopkins:—in receiving a Challenge open, and being the Bearer from Herman Stump to Charles Hopkins:—in rendering Judgment and issuing Execution against Joseph Davis in a Case between him and his Journeyman:—in informing Nathan Little that he might Lawfully kill Charles Hopkins if said Hopkins should attempt to whip said Little in Consequence of a scurrilous Advertisement he had set up:—in breaking the Peace by firing his Gun twice at John Harris:—in rendering Judgment for Walter Taylor against William Hopkins Jun<sup>r</sup>, he having no Notice of the Claim:—in rendering Judgment against said Hopkins who had warranted a person for four pounds who paid the Money to the Brother of said Hopkins after issuing the Warrant:—in rendering Judgment against John Dun for Walter Taylor, Dun having no Notice to appear:—in rendering Judgment against Charles Hopkins for James Rigbie when said Hopkins was not in the State, and a future Day had been appointed for hearing the Parties:—in rendering Judgment against John Hopkins for Jos. Scarborough, the said Hopkins having no notice to appear, and Scarborough's Account not proved.—

October 15
Liber C. B.
No. 24
p. 450

Charges against Mordecai Amos one of the Justices of Harford County—

1st Of being remarkably Ignorant, and given to Liquor.

2<sup>d</sup>—Of Malversation in Office;—particularly in the Case of a Soldier inlisted by his Son, who forced him by threats to Indenture, himself, and he was afterwards sold as a Servant by the Son with the Knowledge and privity of the father—in issuing Execution against W<sup>m</sup> Hopkins Jun<sup>r</sup> for M<sup>r</sup> Allender for 2/6 when Allender was indebted to Hopkins.—

Charges against William Bond one of the Justices of Harford County p. 451

1st That he is a Sot.

2<sup>d</sup> Of Malversation in Office, particularly in rendering Judgment for William Smithson against William Jones Junior.—

Charges against William Smithson one of the Justices of Harford County

1st That he is so ignorant, that he can scarcely read or write

2<sup>d</sup> Of a breach of the peace in assaulting William Jones.

3<sup>d</sup> Of Malversation in Office, particularly in rendering Judgment against William Hopkins, who Warranted Joseph Saunders.—

Charges against John Love one of the Justices of Harford County

1st Of partiality in the Execution of His Office, particularly in a Case between Henry Hagan and Samuel Hopkins.—