

Murder Contrary to the peace of his said Lordsp his Rule and Liber B B
Dignity—

The Grand Jury discharged and the Petite Jury called (uizt)

Foreman M <sup>r</sup> Richard Smyth	Thomas Bennitt
Joseph Horsley	William Hatten
W <sup>m</sup> Dorrington	William Watts
Francis Armstrong	Robert Jones
Robert Blinckhorne	William Black
William Groome	William Harper

The presentments was againe read to the said Jurors, And the Euidences Called Examined and Sworne as afore—The Jurors wthdrew to Consider on the said Bills and their Charge—

The Jurors being called and answering all of them to their Call by their Seuerall names—The fforeman deliuers in their Verdicts endorsed on the backside of each bill with this word (uizt) Guilty—

Pope Aluey Arthur Nottooll and Elizabeth Greene all Called by their names to the Barre—

Pope Aluey first demanded of him what hee had to say for himselfe. To which hee Craues Benifitt of Clergy, which was granted him, And the booke being giuen and demanded whither he read or not, Answer was made that hee read—

Arthur Nottooll being demanded what he had to say for himselfe To which hee Craues benifitt of Cleargy, w<sup>ch</sup> was Granted him, and the booke being giuen, and demanded whither he read or not, Answer was made, that hee read—

Ordered thereupon that the said Pope Aluey & Arthur Nottooll bee forthwith burnt in the brawne of their righte handes with a red hott Iron. Which was by the Vnder Sherriffe immediately Executed—

Then was it demanded of Elizabeth Greene, what she had to say [p. 299] for herselfe, Answered that she threw herselfe on the mercy of the Board, being againe demanded if that was all she had to say, she Answered Yes—Then Sentence of Death past upon her by the Gouverno<sup>r</sup> and Judge in these words following (uizt) Elizabeth Greene Yo<sup>w</sup> shall bee Carryed to the place from whence yo<sup>w</sup> Came, from thence to the place of Execucon, and there bee hang'd by the neck till yo<sup>w</sup> are dead, and soe God haue Mercy upon yo<sup>r</sup> Soule.

On the Morrow being the 8th July 1664 warr<sup>t</sup> issued to the Sherriffe of s<sup>t</sup> Marys County for the p<sup>r</sup>formance of Execucon (uizt)

Whereas Elizabeth Greene was att Our Court of Sessions Arraigned for Murder and there found Guilty by the Virdict of the Jury, upon which sentence of Death was past as by the Judgment giuen on the 6th day of July 1664 doth upon Our Record appeare,—

These are in the name of the Rig<sup>t</sup> Hon<sup>ble</sup> the Lord Proprietary of this prouince to will and require yo<sup>w</sup> to see the said Elizabeth Greene