The Answer of Henry Spincke

Defendeth himselfe and saith that hee oweth not unto the said Rich<sup>d</sup> Bancks and Randall Hanson nor unto Elizabeth the wife of D<sup>r</sup> Luke Barber any thinge true it is that he is Obleiged unto the said Luke Barber the sume of 3000<sup>lb</sup> tob: due by bill which said bill hee Conceiues himselfe not bound to pay to Richard Bancks Randall Handson nor the wife of D<sup>r</sup> Luke Barber, for this reason hee the said Barber neuer had any Consent of the s<sup>d</sup> Spincks to assigne the debt aforesaid to any p<sup>r</sup>son—

And the Court Considered that the bill by which the said Henry Spincke stands endebted to the said Luke Barber is made pay<sup>ble</sup> onely to the said Luke Barber and not to his heires Executors Administrators or Assignes and therefore Ordered that the Appealant be dismissed sine die—

Thomas Nottley the Attorney of Rich<sup>d</sup> Bancks & Randall Handson ffeoffees in trust to Elizabeth the wife of D<sup>r</sup> Luke Barber in this Cause appeales to th<sup>e</sup> Assembly which hee desireth to haue notice on the Record Entred thereof—

The Court Ordered that the ffeoffees in trust to Elizabeth the wife of D<sup>r</sup> Luke Barber pay but single Court Charges to Henry Spincke [p. 303]
