

thy Boore, as for this about menconed if I be call'd in Court I will testifye it to be truth Wittnes my hand this 4th day of October 1664—

Liber B D

the marke of
John I Bigger

Sworn in Open Court
Daniel Jenifer—

Andrew Hinderson sworne in Open Court saith I Came to Mr Stanleys plantacon & howse the last spring was 4 yeares or thereabouts, and Comming from the landing I see a Cow and that Mr Stanley was att home and Mr Truman and another man Came to the water side wth a boate to Carry away the said Cow and was seen by him in the Boate and tyed before he went away—

Sworne in open Court Daniel Jenifer—

Ordered that Thomas Paggett doe put in writeing ags^t tomorrow morning his answee in prouing his Trauers

By the Chancello^r then Judge in Court, it's adjourn'd Vntill tomorrow morninge

All mett as before being the 5th October 1664

Nicholas Gwyther p^{lt} } This Cause being deferr'd until this morn- [p. 333]
Thomas Wynne def^t } ing by the def^{ts} not appearing The p^{lt}: by his Attorney W^m Caluert Esq^r Craues referrance untill next Prouinciall Court the p^{lt}: likewise being Sick and not able to trauell soe farre as to Court

petⁿ 275
308
331

Ordered this Cause be respitted till next Prouinciall Court

Hugh Stanley p^{lt} } Ordered yesterday that the defend^t this day put Tho: Paggett def^t } in his answee in prouing his Trauers, Vpon which Hee desired the Oathes of some persons may be taken in Court—(uizt)

Michaell Cranley sworne saith—Mr Stanley was at Our house to demand this tobacco—Thomas Paggett said he would pay him if he would deliuer him the bill in, being askt, did Hugh Stanley euer promise in yo^r hearing to deliuer up that bill of Henry Thickpennys in Case he would pay him th^e tobacco doe yo^w know that Paggett paid him the tobacco by discount or otherwise, he answered, he made him ouer another Bill, being ask^t what Sum^e of tobacco was that of Thickpennys he said he knew not, being againe askt, doe yo^w know what uallue that bill was that was made ouer, he said noe, & further saith not,

319 petⁿ
333

Michaell Cranley his wife sworne saith Mr Stanley Came to Our house and askt Thomas Paggett if he would pay him the tobacco for Henry Thickpenny, he said yes in Case Mr Stanley would deliuer in Hen: Thickpennys bill, Mr Stanley replied if he would Come to his house att any time he might haue it