

Liber B B beth Horne did to me acknowledge that she did freely and willingly Concurrre and Consent to the Conueyances made by her husband John Horne and her selfe of the land aboue mençoned to Walter Dunch and his heires for euer, the thireteenth day of June anno One thowsand Six hundred Sixty and ffowre— Baltemore

[p. 435]
January 21th Thomas Paine ððs writt ags^t Edward Perce in an accõn uppon the Case to the uallue of 500^{lb} sterling dated ut Supra

Warr^t to sherriffe of S^t Marys County to arrest &^c. Reĭ: 7th ffebb: next Prouinciall Court.

Thomas Paine dem^{ds} writt of summons for Nicholas Young to testifye &^c in Causo ut supra reĭ: next prouin^{all} Court

Thomas Paine is plaintiffe	} In an accõn uppon the Case
Edward Perce Command ^r of the shipe Goulden Fortune is defend ^t

Humbly Sheweth that whereas the pĭt: being passenger in the aforesaid shipe this p^rsent year from England whereof the def^t was and now is Command^r and the pĭt: hauing in England freighted & Loaden seuerall goods and merchandize aboard the said shipe bound for this prouince and here to be deliuered and discharged according to the use and rules of the sea in such Cases prouided, yet neuertheless the def^t contrary to his duty and trust in such Cases required hath and still doth retaine detaine and wthould the pĭt: out of and from a Certaine Chest of lynning and other merchandize part of the aforesaid ffraightm^t marked H H which by the pĭt: was in Engl^d aforesaid on board the said shipe by him Laden and here in this prouince unto him ought to bee deliuered by the Def^t Wherefore the pĭt saith in fact hee is dampnified to the uallue of ffiue hundred pounds sterling and therefore brings this his accõn, and humbly prayeth Iudgm^t of this Honno^{ble} Court ags^t the def^t for the deliuey of the aforesaid Chest wth all the merchandize therein Contained according to the Custome of the Sea unto the pĭt: together wth his damage and Cost of suite, And he as in Duty bound shall euer pray &^c—

Andrew Skinner ððs writt ags^t Richard Collett the Administrat^r of Francis Riggs in an accõn of debt to the uallue of Two thowsand pounds of tobacco wth Caske dated 21th January 1664

Warr^t to sherriffe of Caluert County to arrest &^c. Reĭ. 7th ffebruary next Prouin^{all} Court

Andrew Skinner ððs writt of summons for Thomas Elwes and Sampson Waring to testifye in Causo ut Supra the next Prouin^{all} Court 7th ffebb: uppon perill of forfeiting 500^{lb} tob: each person to the Lord Proprietary in Case they appeare not according to summons—

Warr^t to the sherriffe of Caluert County to warne &^c