

L. H. J. near the yearly Meetings of the People called Quakers, and to prevent Liber No. 47 the tumultuous Concourse of Negroes and other Slaves, during the July 25 said Meetings.

All which his Excellency the Governor passed into Laws, in the usual Form ; and made the following Speech, viz.

Gentlemen of the Upper and Lower Houses of Assembly,

Before putting an End to this Session, I cannot help expressing my Satisfaction with the Confidence you repose in me as to the Disposal of the Money granted at this Time, which I shall take Care to have employed in the Manner that may be most conducive to the Public
p. 487 Good. I should have been glad you had taken under your Consideration the other Matters recommended to you at the Opening of this Session ; but as most of you must be desirous of attending your Home Affairs at this Season, I have, with the Advice of his Lordship's Council of State, thought fit to prorogue this Assembly to the last Tuesday in November next ; and you are to take Notice you are prorogued to that Day accordingly.

Thus endeth this Session of Assembly, this Twenty-fifth Day of July, Anno Domini 1754.
