

Liber C D

Tuesday the 21.st day of December 1669.

Present as before

Samuel Stone pl.<sup>t</sup> Walter Lane defend.<sup>t</sup>

p. 13
(fol. 14)

Carleton for the defendant moves for a fortnights Longer time to answer the plaintiffs Bill Whereupon the Attorneys for the pl.<sup>t</sup> moved the Court for Costs for the defendant so long delay the Bill being filed 15.th November and the defendant then appeared and yet no answer whereupon it is ordered that the said parties do attend the Honble the Chancellour upon the 4.th day of January next and then the defend.<sup>t</sup> is to putt in his answer and to pay unto the plaintiff forty Shillings Cost

Cliffton &amp; Green Hambleton Affidavit

The Deposition of William Hambleton aged 33 years or thereabouts Sworn and Examined before Henry Coursey Esq̄ Saith that in the year 1657 or thereabouts the deponant lived at Capt. Giles Brents in potomack River dureing the time of Nine or Ten Months or thereabouts to the best of your deponants knowledge and during the time of your deponants abode there there lived one William Green a Carpenter and his wife which Green did hire himself to Capt Brent some certain time how long your deponant knoweth not but presently before he was hired to Capt Brent or presently after the said Greene lived at a house of his own near unto Capt Brent upon a peice of Land which Capt Brent had either lett him or sold him it happened so that to the best of your deponants knowledge that the said William Greene did kill a Barrow Hogg belonging to Capt. Giles Brent as he himself did confess to the best of your deponants knowledge and so it was that a small time after he had killed the Hogg the said Green came to Capt Brent and desired him not to trouble him and he would make him honest payment for the Hogg this discourse your Deponant did not at that time hear but your deponant to the best of his knowledge did hear the agreement Capt Brent and William Green your deponant well remember this is true to the best of your De knowledge and remembrance and further saith not

W.<sup>m</sup> Hamble

This was Sworn before me this } 22<sup>d</sup> day of December 1669 } Henry Coursey

There being some Controversy between James Clifton of Stafford County in the Collony of Virginia Gent. and William Greene to which the said Affidavit had relation The Honble the Chancellour did at the request of the said M.<sup>r</sup> Clifton cause the Tenour of the Record of the said affidavit to be made known under his hand & the lesser Seal of this province thereto affixed the 4.th day of January in the 38th of Cæcilius &.<sup>ct</sup>