

Liber A Edward William Aged 33 years or thereabouts Sworne and examined in open Court at the request of M<sup>r</sup> Arthur Turner against Lucie Stratton Swareth that hee hard lucie stratton Say Shee beeing told that She was with Child that if She wear Shee woould not lay her child to any such fellow as this deponant but She woould father it upone Such a fellow as John Ward or Richard Smith and further Sayeth not

[p. 37] Anne Gey Aged fiftie years or thereabouts Sworne and examined in open Court Sayeth that beeing with Lucie Stratton the saterday after the Sayd Stratton was deliuered of her Child M<sup>r</sup> Arthur Turner came and desiered this deponant to looke to the Sayd Stratton and his Child whearupon this deponant answered him that Shee coould not by reason that She had diuers lame folkes in her hows and the Saboth following this deponant was desiered of the aforsayd Turner to speake unto the sayd Stratton to See if She coould perswade the sayd Stratton to marrie him who replied that She coould not loue him much les make him her husband and further Sayeth not

John Ashbrooke Sworne and examined in open Court at the request of M<sup>r</sup> Arther Turner Sayeth that hee hard Lucie Stratton Say that She coould lay the Child borne of her bodie to William Bows but that She woould not doe because she thaught in her conscience that the child aforsayd was M<sup>r</sup> Arthur Turners and further sayeth not.

Walter Ges Sworne and examined in open Court at the request of M<sup>r</sup> Arthur Turner Sayeth that hee heard (M<sup>r</sup> Arthur Turner) velim dicer John Ashbrooke say that the sayd stratton did say she coould lay the Child borne of her to william Bols as wel as to M<sup>r</sup> Arthur Turner and further sayeth not

Margeret Pearce Sworne and examined in open Court at the request of M<sup>r</sup> Arther Turner Sayeth that She hard John Ashbrooke say that the sayd Stratton did say she coould lay the Child borne of her to William Bous as wel as to M<sup>r</sup> Arther Turner and further sayeth not

[p. 38] Robert Wilson Aged 30 years or thereabouts Sworne and examined in open Court Sayeth that hee telling Lucie Stratton that She was with Child and the sayd Stratton replied that if She weare She wold not father it upon any such fellow as this deponant but that she woould father it upon such a one as John Ward or Richard Smith and further Sayeth not

Richard Dode Aged 25 years or thereabouts Sworne and examined in open Court Swareth that M<sup>r</sup> Arther Turner came unto this deponant and asked him wheather his wife coould nurs his child and this deponant answered no hee thaught his wife was with child and therefor coould not and further Sayeth not