

The Defendant not being able to show any lawful Reason why Liber A judgment should not pass upon the precedent bill it is therefore ordered that the defendant pay unto the Plaintiff 303 pounds of tobacco and Caske with all Cost and Charge of suit :

Hennerie Grace Plantiue } the Plantiue aresting the Defendant in an John Gey Defendant } actione of the Case Prefereth his Petitione as followeth

To the Worshipful Commissioners or Charleses Countie the 110 humble Petitione of Hennerie Grace

Sheweth that your Petitioner hauing wraught 5 weeks last Croke with John Gey as also let him haue a waskote which Cost him 80 lb of tobacco: your Petitioner hauing demanded satisfacione is denyed payment, therefore hath entered his suit Humblie beseeching your worships to take it into Consideration as also that your Petitioner being formerly Arrested at the suit of the sayd Guy and by reason of his being sicke that hee could not appeare iudgment past against your Petitioner John Gey pleading his cause of suit was for a Cuer which your Petitioner came proue was no Cuer the Premisses taken into your consideration your Petitioner beseecheth your worships to grant him order with Cost of suit and hee shal as in dutie bound Pray &c

The Defendant denieth to haue had any worke of the Plantiue worthie of Consideratione but owneth the wascoate and desiereth that Walter Cotterell and William Hinschow may bee sworne Concerning the Plantiues worke which is granted

Walter Cotterell sworne and and examined in open Court sayeth that Hen: Grace did worke but a verie littel and not so hard as to counteruayle his diate which is also verified by the oath of William Hinschow

Therefore it is ordered that the Plantiues worke and the aforsayd [p. 56] wascoat should pay for his Diate

Hennerie Lillie Plantiue } The Plantiue Arresting the Defendant in James Lee Defendant: } an action of the case prefereth his Petitione as falloweth

To the Worshipful Comm of Charleses Countie the 111 humble Petitione of Henry Lillie Sheweth that your Petitioner agreed with James Lee to let his wife liue in his house a yeare, and layd in prouission for her diate but about a mounth after she went to liue there she could not be suffered to enioy the Priuiledge of the house quietly according to yo^r Petitioners Agreement but was forced to depart the sayd hous being warned thearto by the womane which is house keeper for the sayd James Lee therefore your Petitioner demand-