

Liber B wee demanded whear william Allen was John Muns Replied hee was kindling a fier under an old tree side so going up to him to the fier
 [p. 404] James Lee sayd God speed your Labour and Presantly sayd ; William, you haue undon mee and haue not left mee one sow that euer had any Pigs william Allen Replied hee was very sorry for it for hee thought hee had done him an iniury then James Lee asked the sayd Allen what thay did intend to doe with the meat Allen Replied what you thincke fite James lee beeing in amase to see such a strange Act performed by thos men Coould not tell what to say and hauing allways in the same Company eleuen shoats and them three sows doubted that the whole gange either woould bee gon if not alredy gone for want of the three leading sowse then sayd William Allen if each of thos that wear with mee woould tacke each of them a turne hee woould bring the Rest whome to James Lees hows James Lee maed him Answer that hee Coould not doe it neither had hee any but him self that hee Coould Com-mand for I must go home to looke after the Rest of the Company that wear with them for if thay shoould Come home thear was none that coould tacke notice of them not thinking that any thing was amise then William Allen sayd to James Lee what satisfacione woould you haue for them James Lee Replied I know not what in Regard I know not what is wanting of the Rest of the Company William Allen Answered I will giue you three sows and foure shoats of three or four mounths ould apeece and if that will not satisfie you I will giue
 [p 405] You three sows and six shoats and upon that wee all went to the place whear the shoat lay dead and tooke it and vewed it and the very pouder that Came out of the Gune had singed the haer about the hole whear the shot went in about the breadth of the palme of a mans hands then James Lee demanded who killed that Shoat thay all stood at present as beeing men amased not answering only John Muns Re-laeted befor that John boyden had done it James Lee examined the sayd boyden about it and the sayd boyden Confest the same James Lee Replied John boyden what had you to doe to hunt or kill any hogs of mine? for I neuer gaue you any order to hunt or kill any either in the necke or out of the necke nether had you any of your owne that euer I heard of John boyden sayed hearing of my Companions Cry out a gune a gune hauing my gune in my hand Rane upe and shot it but had I knowne it had bin your I woould not haue done it for my Right hand then upon that wee departing from them william Allen Called after James Lee and sayd if hee woould Come home to his howse before thees 3 men John Cabell John Muns and John boyden hee the sayd Allen woould giue him as many hogs out of his owne stocke untill the sayd James Lee shoould thincke himself Satisfied James Lee Replied hee woould not tacke a pige in a poake or bage till I see them and this wee doe testifie to bee the very truth and further say Not: