

Liber B yes quoth M^r Wickes you haue one at my house giue him That: soe the s^d m^r Hill went in Adoers amediatly And gaue his sunn Tho: vnder his hand for The s^d heffer That m^r Wickes had p^rswaded the s^d m^r Hill vnto in the p^rsence of The s^d m^r Wickes: And severall others Then p^rsent did giue vnto The s^d Tho: Hill severall somes of Tobacco as every one was willing vnder There hands in A paper together with M^r Hill & m^r Wickes: Jo: Ringold

Misteris francis Morgon sworne sayeth

That she being Then p^rsent when The Aboute s^d words was spoken both by m^r Wickes And M^r Hill And doe Aferme the very same with John Ringold: only she Doth not Remember whether it was m^r Hill or m^r Wickes That was The first That mentioned The heffer at M^r Wickes: But M^r Wickes Did Consent & Agree to The gift And was p^rsent And Did se the s^d M^r Hill giue vnder his hand vnto his sunn for the s^d heffer fra: III Morgon her signe

Anne Hinson sworne saith

That she being at M^r Wickes house with her husband when The s^d M^r Wickes sayed he had Tenderd A heffer for M^r Hills Vsse before her husband And som body elc which she cannot Remember which was for his boys scolling And Did p^rswad yo^r Deponant That she should be suer to Tell M^r Hill of The Tender for he would not stand no longer to The hasard of it: And That he had no other of That Age or growth: That yeare: soe as sowne as yo^r Dep^t Did se m^r Hill she Did Aquaynt him with those words That m^r Wickes had Inioynd her: And m^r Hill was very well sattesfied with That Deliuery: And s^d That he would send his sunn vp Thether to se her very sudenly: And not long after yo^r Deponants husband goinge to The Mannathes The s^d M^r Wickes Came vnto yo^r Dep^{ts} house And s^d That he was Com to fetch Away his Boy bereson That she had nobody to beat for her: And yo^r Dep^t Replied That she Thought it was nothing but his Couituosnes That would not pay for his Diet: And soe by That Meenes The Boy should loose his larning: And the s^d M^r Wickes Replied That his Mayed should Tech him A lettell whiell And Then it may be he would bring him Downe Agayen: soe The s^d M^r Wickes went Downe vnto M^r Hill And Came Agayne And Brought The Boy And s^d That he would Carry him whom with him for M^r Hill And he had Agreed That if he would he might send him Agayne or send an other In his Rom but if he Did not M^r Hill was to haue his full pay for The wholle Time: Then yo^r Dep^t s^d Agayne That it ware best for him to gett M^r Bradnox Boy And put in his Rome Rather Then lett him haue his wholl pay for halfe The Time/ soe as sounne as The s^d m^r Wickes was gone yo^r Deponant went Downe vnto m^r Hills house And The s^d m^r Hill Did Declayer vnto yo^r Dep^t The very same Agreement That m^r Wickes had A lettell before And m^r Hill further s^d doe you Thinke