

Liber B Upon th<sup>e</sup> p<sup>r</sup>sentm<sup>t</sup> of Rob<sup>t</sup> Knapp, by th<sup>e</sup> Constable Henry Gott, for beinge Drunke, & doth bringe in Doc<sup>r</sup> william Hemsly reporter of th<sup>e</sup> same, & th<sup>e</sup> Constable affirminge the same as he is on his Oath, the Doc<sup>r</sup> william Hemsley denyeth th<sup>t</sup> he euer reported any such matter. The Court not findinge th<sup>e</sup> s<sup>d</sup> Knapp guilty, & th<sup>t</sup> th<sup>e</sup> Constables Testimony to be accepted, doth order that th<sup>e</sup> sd william Hemsley shall pay cost of suyte Else Exec<sup>n</sup>.

Teste me John Cowrsey Cla<sup>r</sup>

Deliverance Louly on th<sup>e</sup> p<sup>r</sup>sentm<sup>t</sup> for his neglect in not plantinge his full proportion of Corne accordinge to Acte of Assembly, The Court Findeinge that It was not a willfull neglecte in th<sup>e</sup> sd Louly, doth order that th<sup>e</sup> sd Deliverance Louly shall only pay Cost of suyte. else Exec<sup>n</sup>

Teste me John Cowrsey Cla<sup>r</sup>

Nicholas Pickard beinge p<sup>r</sup>esented by th<sup>e</sup> Constable Henry Gott for beinge Drunke, & doth bringe in John Stoill & m<sup>r</sup> william Hemsley & M<sup>r</sup> Louly reporters of the same, the Euidence say that they heard that Nicholas Pickard was Drunken but saw it not, noe Just prooffe beinge mayd herein the Court doth order that this Cause shall be dismiss

Teste me John Cowrsey Cla<sup>r</sup>

Deliverance Louly demandeth war<sup>t</sup> versus Gregory Murill in an Action of th<sup>e</sup> Case, for this he bringeth his suyt.

Deliverance Louly doth withdraw his suyt wth Gregory Murill & the suyt wth his wife Ann Murill.

Joh<sup>n</sup> Salter Plan<sup>t</sup>
Ann Murill Defen<sup>t</sup>

Upon th<sup>e</sup> p<sup>r</sup>sentm<sup>t</sup> of Joh<sup>n</sup> Salters peti<sup>o</sup>n before any debate in this Cause, Gregory Murill in th<sup>e</sup> behalfe of his wife doth Craue a Reference for further Testimony, w<sup>ch</sup> the Court hath granted there upon

Teste me John Cowrsey Cla<sup>r</sup>

Morgan Williams beinge somoned to Court to take the office of a Constable hath readily accepted of the same & sworne to th<sup>e</sup> sd office in open Court.

Thomas Hill is p<sup>r</sup>esented For Constable of th<sup>e</sup> Lower precinct of Kent County & to appeare next Court

John Hardiman Alias Stoill beinge somoned to Court on a p<sup>r</sup>sentm<sup>t</sup> for keepinge Company wth Jane Fox as his wife, after th<sup>t</sup> Cap<sup>t</sup> Vaughan had questioned the sd Stoill & wth his consent had seperated them not beinge Lawfully Married. John Stoill hath confest that he did lye wth th<sup>e</sup> sd Jane Fox, & Further saith that they haue liued together as man & wife And that he can proue that they are man &