

Liber B apeale which the corte doth grante and doth order that the def: shall put in security for duple damages to answer at the next proventiall Cort and that tho: suthen shall haue his Libertye giueinge ine 1500th of tob: security to apeare at the proventiall Cort and tell the said Cort haue time to produce his Euidence

Tho: Snow aged 20 years or thereabouts sworne in Corte

Saith that the day that tho: Dicks died he Came into the house and asked hime how he deed he tould hime he wase very bade and I sate upon the Chest by hime a lettell while and I asked hime whether or no he knew me he tould me he dide and a littell after he asked me to Reach hime a paire of stockings and I asked hime w^t stockings he tould me a paire of stockings lyinge upon his Chest and in stead of the stockings I gaued hime his will which lay upon his Chest and he tould me it wase not them and he said there is a womane in Londⁿ. that made of those stockings and then M^r hemslye desired me to put my hand to that will and he asked the said tho: whether or no he owned it to be his hand which he dide and I sett my hand to the will and farther saith not

Thomas Snow

Teste Toby Wells C^{lk}

Will: hemsly moueing in Corte tuching the will of Thomas Dicks decedent the Cort haueing not time to Examine the matter fully doth order that the said Will: hemsly shall take the Estate into his position tell the next Corte only that Macume Meconny and he may see the Croke struck and sharde and an Inuentory with the will to be Exhibited unto the next Corte

The Cort doth order that John Smith shall take into his Custody the Estate of John Stowell decedent and secure the same and take care that no part be spoyld or Imbasled and that the said John Smith shall haue sattifa for his payns in his Care and to giue the shrife a Just Inuentory to be Exhibited to the next Cort

[fol. 81] The Cort doth order that Mathew Reade shall take into his Costody and Care the Estate of tho: Reade decedent and att the next Cort to Exhibit a Just Inuentory of all the said Estate and will if there be any at the next Cort wher further order shall be taken there in

The Cort doth order that M^s Conner shall haue poure to posese hur selfe of the Estate of M^r Conner decedent hur late husband and to dispose thearof in payment of debts according to law Exhibiting an Invoyce and puting in Securrity M^r Coursey and the shrife shall take th^e Inuentory as with theyre Consent is agreede

M^r Jo: Coursey haueing a writt of attachment against the Estate of William Bagger in the hand of Nicklus Brodway he beinge non