

and she saide that he had beene goinge Away from my house Seaverall times butt that I the Saide Bridgett wass the Cause of his Stay She pswaded her husband to giue him halfe th^e the land Rather then he should goe Away and further Saith nott

Liber BB
No. 2

Catherin Turner K B marke ⊕

Exammanacon taken the 3^d day of Sept^r 1672 before m^r william Coursey and m^r Phillipp Steevenson Justices

John Clymer Saith that being Examined what he did att John Madberis house Answerd that he Came to take his Rest for he Could not take his Rest at whome and that he Could not take noe rest for Bridgitts scoulding

the Examination of Elizabeth wife to John Madbery ass Followeth that whereass I Elizabeth Madbery doe not know of John Clymer being in the Roome with me when I wass lying asleepe uppon my bed and that hee Came into the house unknowne unto me butt when first I saw him the s^d Clymer he wass astriuing with Bridgett Jonson :

The Deposition of Simond Clymer

Saith that he hearde Bridgitt declare that my Brother Clymer had beene Sure to her any time this three yeare and that he wass to tarry for the said Bridgitt fower yeares longer whereuppon this deponent Saith he aduised her to tell her husband and if in Case She could not tell her husband I the deponent would thereuppon the said Bridgitt doune uppon her knees and Requested me to be silent Seaurall other times I did tell her if Shee did not make it knowne to her husband great danger might Insue she durst not tell her husband she had rather take blowes from him the Saide Clymer then to make itt knowne to her husband and further Saith nott

The Deposition of Simond Clymer th^e Second the Second time before m^r william Coursey and m^r Phillipp Steevenson Justices of Peace:

Saith that he heard Bridgitt Jonson declare that his brother John Clymer had beene Sure to her any time this three yeares and that he wass to tarry for the said Bridgitt Jonson fower yeares Longer whereuppon being beate oftentimes by John Clymer yo^r deponent Saith he aduised her to tell her husband and if in Case she wold not tell her husband of her being beate I the deponent wold whereuppon the said Bridgitt doune uppon her knees and Requested me to be silent Seauerall other times I did tell her if She did not make itt knowne to her husband greate danger might ensue She durst not tell her husband she had Rather take Blowes from him the said John Clymer then to make itt knowne to her husband and further Saith nott

[p. —]