

Liber BB
No. 2

them allsoe and threw the said Other hogg Behind the house itt was a Great hogg With White and Blacke Spotts With the Eares Market Butt What Marke I Doe Not knowe the unmarked Shoate Was Flead and the Greate hogg Was Flead and as the was Flaing the said hogg there Came up one of there horses to the house and they thought some People ware Comeing they Blew out ther Candle When the saruant Came in M^r Robbins Asket th^e Wench iff they had Donn She said Noe he Asket her what the came in for She Answard She came in to light the Candle for she had Blone it out Because She was afraid Somebody was a Comeing and the said saruant Maid Tould yo^r Deponant th^t she had kill a Nother hogg With Whole Eares and yo^r Depon^t tould th^e said Maid I beleiue it is one of George Allembey hoggs & you will be hanged One time or other and the said Saruan Maid Replied Doe you thinke if I did Not doe such trickes I should liue Soe quiett as I Doe and further yo^r Deponant that She hath Knowne that they haue had three Or fowre hoggs in Weeke But who Brought them I Doe Not know Nothing Else But only I haue herd him say th^t if his folkes Ware True to him he Would Goe to Barbodos Next yeare and further yo^r Deponant saith Not as I can at Present Remember Concerneing hoges Eliza: E K Wattson Sworne Before me Edw Roe: Signē

[p.—] yo^r Deponant haueing Better Recollected hir Memory Saith Further that Some tim in Augst Last M^r Robbins Sent his men out into the Woods & Charged them Not to Come in Without Some kind of Meate But his first Comand was to kill a hogg But his Saruants Replied phaps Wee Can Meete with Non then George Robbins Said they Must Not Come in without Some Meate Or Other this Was on a Sunday by my Rememberance Edward Winckles and Jonathan Hopkinson Wife was there and Jn^o Whittingtons wife & the said Saruants Retorned Before these People was Gon haueing then Killed a Hogg and hid the said hogg and Durst Not Bringe the Said hogg to the house Because those People ware there Butt torned their Horses into the Passtor Soe Came to the house without Anythinge the George Robbins Askt them Priuatly if they had killed a hogg they Said yes then George Robbins bid them say they had been to Looke for horses and When the Saruant Came in he Asked them if had found them and they said Noe then he Pretended to bee Angry With them saying if he had Not sent a Company of Fooles they Might haue found them they ware then Intended to goe to Douer and yo^r Deponant went wth them to witt M^r Robbins and his Wife and as M^r Robbins was going to take horse he the said Robbins Called Robert Marmaduke and bid him the said Robbert that if he had an oportunity that Noe People Came to Fech the aforesaid hogg in and that if People Came that he Could Not Gett the said hogg in he should Carry some salt and salt itt Where itt Lay that itt Might Not spoil and the said Robbins tould the said Robertt th^t he