

Liber B James Rigby saith:

That sometime in Nouember last was a Twilfe mounth M^r Ringgold was with M^r Marsh And Desierd him to Credit him with Three hundred lb of Tobacco And Caske which Valleros The sweed should owe him for A sow And That he would Charg it to his Account which was Then Downe: but in The same Mounth Came M^r Ringgold Agayen And s^d That That Debt Must be Taken of Agayen of The sweeds Acc^t for he must ether Take his sow Againe or keep her: which Debt was Taken of his Account Agayne/

p me Ja: Rigby

The Depossetion of Capt Robt Vaughan saith:

That Coming to M^r Morgons house A lettell before Valleros Death: And The s^d Valleros s^d That M^r Morgon And his wiffe had Vssed him very well in The Time of his sicknes And for her payens And Truble he had giuen The s^d Misteris Morgon A sow That he had bought of M^r Ringgold: But now he hath heard That m^r Ringgold had killd her./

Rob^t Vaughan

John Salter sworne saith That being at M^r Morgons house Misteris Morgon Tould yo^r Deponant That James Ringgold had ben There And had Demand of her if The sow That his father had sowld Valleros was giuen to her which if it were he would giue her sattesfaction/

John ꝛ Salters
signe

[fol. 7] The Depossetion of M^r Thomas south saith:

That yo^r Deponant And M^r Morgon Coming to M^r Ringgolds house when The s^d m^r Ringgold was Dresseing A hogg: And yo^r Depona^t or M^r Morgon or both s^d That that hogg had Maffi Reeds Marke And James Ringgold s^d in his fathers p^sence That the frost had Allterd The marke but M^r Ringgold sd nothing: But not long After The s^d M^r Ringgold did Tell yo^r Deponant That That sow That he yo^r Deponant did formerly se him Dresse was The sow That he had sowld Valleros:/

Tho: South

The Depossetion of M^r Isack Iliue saith

That yo^r Deponant som 2 yeares $\frac{1}{2}$ since or There Abouts Being at M^r Marsh house And he wanting A payer of small stilliards to way som suger: And he the s^d m^r Marsh s^d That M^r south had A payer of his which he Desierd yo^r Depon^t To Demand Them of the s^d M^r south: which yo^r Deponant Did but reciued no Answere/

Isa: Iliue:

The Depossetion of Ja: Hornor saith

That About som 2 yeares since or There Abouts yo^r Depon^t being at The Thacht house That is now m^r Elleoyets when M^r south liued There And M^r Marsh being There And lying in A hamack: Demanded of m^r south his small stilliards for he had Ocation to vsse