p. 225 May it please your Excellency

Having thought it our Duty to preferr an humble Petition to his most sacred Majesty in Order to obtain a Suspension of the late Act of Parliament prohibiting the Exportation of Grain and Provisions from his Majesty's Colonies in America, and also to represent to the Lords Commissioners for Trade, and Plantations, the great Disadvantages the People of this Province must labour under from the Restrictions laid upon their Trade by the said Act, we have addressed the Lord Proprietary to request him to present the said
