Col. Tilghman brings in and delivers to Mr. Speaker, the following Ingrossed Address, viz.†

To his Excellency Horatio Sharpe, Esq;† Governor and Commander in Chief in and over the Province of Maryland: p. 396

The humble Address of the House of Delegates.

May it please your Excellency

As we could not entertain an Opinion, that your Excellency would, without being impowered by some Statute of England, or some Law of this Province, form such Regulations as are mentioned in the Paragraph recited in our Address of the Thirteenth, so we are fully persuaded your Excellency will, in your Endeavours to procure an exact Observance of such Orders as shall be issued from Time to Time, by the Commander in Chief, for Quartering the Troops, Impressing Carriages, and Providing all Necessaries, for such Troops as shall arrive in, or be raised within, this Province, act in a Manner consistent with the Statutes of England, the Laws of this Province, and the Rights and Liberties of the good People thereof, committed to your Care and Protection. We are glad the Bill we Framed in a former Session, agreeable to your Excellency's Recommendation, for Regulating the Hire of Carriages, has had
