Mr. Murdock brings in and delivers to Mr. Speaker, the following Ingrossed Address, viz.

To his Excellency Horatio Sharpe, Esq; Governor and Commander in Chief in and over the Province of Maryland:

The humble Address of the House of Delegates.

May it please your Excellency,

The Business of this Session being near a Conclusion, when your Excellency was pleased to recommend to us in your Speech of the 19th Instant, to prepare a Bill for obliging Masters of Vessels, that shall come to this Province thro' the Capes of Virginia, to pay a Duty towards Building a Light-House on Cape-Henry, and keeping a Light therein; we thought proper to defer the Consideration of that, and the other Matter recommended to us, till our next Meeting: And as we have now finished all the Business which we can proceed on at this Time, the Season being far advanced, and the Weather so
