

Whereupon the sherriff being called deliuers in a Pannell of Jurors Liber FF whose names are as followeth

Foreman M ^r Joseph Horsley	John Potts
Henry Hosier	Thomas Hinton
Richard Attkins	Clement Theobalds
Curtis Fletcher	John Cock
John Staynes	Walter Greene
Oliuer Gery	Jonathan Marler

The Jury being called euery man by his name and answering there-unto were sworne seuerally

The Prisoners making no Challenge &^e The petty Jury being counted were twelue in number

The Jury then had their Charge giuen them (in forme as was to the other prisoner) Concerning the Prisoners att the Barr, and that they should now heare their Euidence

Then was called John Kinsey John Christopher Ann Birdg and [p. 657] Ann Billingsley to giue Euidence on behalfe of the L^d Prop^r against William Kee now prisoner att the Barre

Also then was Called Clement Theobald Ralph wormley Thomas Knap Robert Benson and mary Theobald to giue Euidence on behalfe of the Lord Prop^r ag^t Thomas Corker now prisoner att the Barr all which Euidences appearing were sworne & examined in Open Court declaring to the Jury what they could say therein Which being done the Jury went from th^e Barr

The Jury of life and death being agreed came into Court to giue their Verdict, being called by their names answered thereunto and ask if they were agreed of their uerdict answered yea, and who should say for them answered the foreman

The Prisoners was then called to the Barr and there held up their hands

The Clerk then said to the Jury look upon William Kee prisoner att the Barr, yo^w that be sworne what say yo^w is hee guilty of what hee stands endicted or not Guilty, Who answered Not Guilty soe yo^w all say answered yea, the Jury being askt if he did fly for it, answered not to our knowledge

The Jury then was askt whether Thomas Corker the other prisoner att the Barr was Guilty of what hee stands indicted or not Guilty, Who deliuered in a speciall Verdict in writeing as followeth (uizt)

The Jury doe finde the speciall matter thus (uizt) That Richard Turner was killed wth a gunn by Tho: Corker and the pray the aduizm^t of the Court if the Co^{rt} doe finde it manslaughter wee finde it manslaughter Otherwise Wee finde it manslaughter by misadventure

The Court then askt the Jury where they finde hee was when hee was killed or shott, answered upon some loggs without doores asleep