

Thomas South affirms this, onely saith hee doth not positively remember wether hee were to returne land or rights to land, but he thinketh it was onely rights to land Liber FF

James Ringgold knowes nothing of it,

James Ringgold affirms it upon Condiçon to haue land

Thomas South Affirms it, onely was not p<sup>r</sup>sent at th<sup>e</sup> marking of th<sup>e</sup> tree

Wether yo<sup>w</sup> doe not know that Hinsons halfe was seperated from the said m<sup>r</sup> Thomas Ringgolds by a markt tree neer the middle of the land by agreem<sup>t</sup> betweene themselues

Thomas South affirms it

James Ringgold affirms it

Wether this Agreem<sup>t</sup> was not then made upon the land, and many times rehearst after, that the said M<sup>r</sup> Ringgold would p<sup>r</sup>forme it, and M<sup>r</sup> Hinson on his part, and that thereupon the said M<sup>r</sup> Ringgold and M<sup>r</sup> Hinson went immediatly downe to S<sup>t</sup> Marys where M<sup>r</sup> Robert Clarke Suruey<sup>r</sup> Generall did Confirme the marking & pacing the land out and afterwards Confirmed by Order of Court at seuerne upon a Tryall betwixt M<sup>r</sup> Ringgold and Cap<sup>t</sup> wicks [p. 257]

Thomas South affirms it

James Ringgold affirms it but upon Condiçon to haue land

Wether yo<sup>w</sup> did not euer heare M<sup>r</sup> Ringgold rehearse the Agreem<sup>t</sup> before yo<sup>w</sup> before their goinge downe to S<sup>t</sup> Marys presently after the marking and laying out of the land the first time

Thomas South affirms it

James Ringgold knowes not

Wether yo<sup>w</sup> haue not often heard m<sup>r</sup> Hinson demãd the afores<sup>d</sup> agreem<sup>t</sup> of m<sup>r</sup> Ringgould

Thomas South denyes it

James Ringgold denyes it as here pen'd but only upon Condiçon to haue other land

Wether yo<sup>w</sup> did not heare mr Ringgold agree, That if Mr Hinson would giue him a hñd of tobaccoe that hee would performe the Agreem<sup>t</sup> or mr Thomas Ringgold would giue Mast<sup>r</sup> Thomas Hinson a hñd of tobaccoe to let it alone

Thomas South knowes nothing of it

James Ringgold saith the proportiçon of one hñd of tob: was in Case the One halfe should proue better then the other
