Mary Veitch aged 26 yeares or thereabouts Sworne and Examined [p. 312] saith

That about 4 months before Stephen Cliftons death yo<sup>r</sup> depon<sup>t</sup> was at the howse of the said Clifton and heard him say seuerall times that the said Clifton had giuen Demetrius Cartwright the hñd of tob: which he owed to Thomas Mountfort, and that he would take in Demetrius Cartwrights bill and that should not be all hee would giue the said Cartwright, for he did intend to gratifye him otherwise, and further saith that the hñd of tobacco was paid to the said Cartwright for making him a booke of figures and giuing him instruccōns in his practice, and further yo<sup>r</sup> depon<sup>t</sup> saith that afterwards she heard the said Clifton say that he had taken in Demetrius Cartwrights Bill from M<sup>r</sup> Sprigg being Attorney of the said Mountfort, And further yo<sup>r</sup> dep<sup>t</sup> saith not
