By the Lower House of Assembly Nov.ʳ 8, 1763

May it please your Honours

We doubt not but that the Justices are Sufficiently qualifyed to do the Duty, in the discharge of which we proposed to join with them the Gentlemen who are Representatives of each County, but if their former Transactions might be admitted in our Conjectures as to the future, we coud not but be Apprehensive that the People wou'd Still Suffer, as we know they have a Long time done, and now do in most places, for want of Warehouse Room, Wharfs, Cranes, & Other Conveniencies, requisite by Law & for which they are annually taxed

We did not assert, that the people in General loudly complained of the Illegal Exaction of Officers, but that we know their Complaints to be many and loud with regard to the Illegal Charges of fees by Officers, and this we do Still assert, and know they are far from being devoid of Reasonable Grounds and that they have not flow'd from Ignorance, or been excited by misrepresentation
