From the Colony of New-York,

Robert R. Livingston,	} Esquires,
John Cruger,
Philip Livingston,
William Byard,
Leonard Lispenard,

appeared, and informed the Congress, That since the Receipt of the above Letter from the Speaker of the House of Representatives of Massachusetts Bay, the General Assembly of New-York have not had an Opportunity of Meeting, but that they confidently expect from the general Sense of the People, and such of the Representatives as they have had an Opportunity of speaking to, that when the Assembly does meet (which will probably be very soon) the Congress will be Approved, and a regular Committee for the Purpose appointed: In the mean Time they think themselves in some Measure authorized to meet the Congress, by the following Votes, viz.

Extract from the Votes and Proceedings of the General Assembly, for the Colony of New-York.

Die Sabbati, 9h. A. M. the 4th April 1761.

Mr. Speaker represented to this House, that his Situation in the Country render'd it vastly inconvenient to him alone, to correspond with the Agent of this Colony at the Court of Great-Britain, and more especially so during the Recess of the House.

Ordered, That the Members of the City of New-York, or the major Part of them, be a Committee of Correspondence, to correspond with the Agent of this Colony, at the Court of Great-Britain, during the Recess of the House, concerning the Public Affairs of this Colony, and that they lay before the House, Copies of all such Letters as they may write to him, and also all such Letters and Advices as they may receive from him, respecting the same.

Die Jovis, 9h. A. M. the 9th December 1762.
