Wednesday, September 11th 1765, A. M.

The Committee appointed to prepare Instructions for the Deputies nominated by this House to attend the proposed Congress, at New-York, on the first of next Month, reported an Essay for that Purpose, which they presented to the Chair, and the same being read and agreed to by the House, follows in these Words, viz.

“Instructions to the Committee appointed to meet the Committees of the other British Continental Colonies at New-York.

“It is Directed by the House, That you shall, with the Committees that have been, or shall be appointed by the several British Colonies on this Continent, to meet at New-York, consult together on the present Circumstances of the Colonies, and the Difficulties they are, and must be reduced to, by the late Acts of Parliament for levying Duties and Taxes upon them, and join with the said Committees, in loyal and dutiful Addresses to the King and the Two Houses of Parliament, humbly representing the Condition of these Colonies, and imploring Relief, by a Repeal of the said Acts; and you are strictly required to take Care, that such Addresses in which you join, are drawn up in the most decent and respectful Terms, so as to avoid every Expression that can give the least occasion of Offence to his Majesty, or to either House of Parliament.

You are also directed to make a Report of your Proceedings herein to the succeeding Assembly.

“A true Extract from the Journals, September 26th 1765.

“Charles Moore, Clerk of Assembly.”
