

at th^e said new Tobacoe house This Deponent further saith he Liber D saw after this Derick Tunason & Obidiah Penock bring in An hogg to the said Tobacoe house of his said Masters marke And this Deponent saith th^t he did here his Masters servants say that they had killed severall of their Masters hoggs in th^e woods & eate them but further saith not John Muschamp

February 3rd 1669
Juratus coram me
Henry Adames

The Deposition of Obediah Pennock aged thirty three years or [p. 144] thereabouts sworne & Saith

That about a fortnight before Christmas last past John Decreveire Overseer of the hands of Cap^t James Neale did with the Assistance of Melchor Kirkman make use of a key which belonged to the Corne house of the said James Neale open & unlockt the house wherin th^e said Neale had lodged Certaine Pipes Barrells and Hoggsheads of Wine and there Did enter and carry away a Quantity [p. 145] thereof likewise inviteing and encourageing All th^e servants of th^e said Neale to doe th^e same sweareing of them each in particular to conceale th^e fact and this they Continued doeing for severall nights together the parties that did enter to draw th^e Wine are as follow Imp^r John Decreveire him self who some times went in and when hee did not enter used to stand and watch by the Orchard gate of the sd Neales to see th^t none Came from th^e dwelling to discover them the next and cheifest was Melchor Kirkman then Gerard FitsGerard Thomas Kiffy Thom Miller John Smith Christopher Enibuson Derick Enibuson Andreas Peterson & Jasper Elieson and that these servants Did kill in the woodes and secretly Carry [p. 146] and brought home and eat Unknown and without th^e Permission of their said Master one hogg & one Shoate, what marke these hoggs had this Deponent knoweth not and further cannot say

Examined & Sworne before me Obidiah Pennuck this 2nd of Februa^r 1668
Jerome White

The Deposition of Thomas Miller Aged twenty and five years or [p. 147] thereabouts sworne & Saith

That about a fortnight before Christmas last past John Decreveire overseer of the hands of Captaine James Neale did wth the Assistance of Melchor Kirkman make use of A Key which belonged to the Corne house of Cap^t James Neale and did open and unlock the house wherein the said Neale had lodged Certaine Pipes barrells and hoggsheads of Wine Inviteing and encourageing all the rest of the Servants of the said Neale To doe the same this they Continued [p. 148] doeing for severall nights together the names of the parties that were Confiderates in this fact were As follow Imprimis John De Creveire himself who as this Deponent was informed did enter and