

away but went away: Neither did you steale M<sup>r</sup> Thoroughgoods Kanooe said th<sup>e</sup> Defend<sup>t</sup> to th<sup>e</sup> Plaintife; Noe answered th<sup>e</sup> Plaintife I tooke her away: But stay saith th<sup>e</sup> Defend<sup>t</sup> Ile knowe who hath harboured you all this while; That is noe matter replied th<sup>e</sup> Plaintife, you went away before your time said th<sup>e</sup> Defend<sup>t</sup> to w<sup>ch</sup> th<sup>e</sup> Plaintife answered th<sup>t</sup> for th<sup>e</sup> time he went away before he would make satisfacon, and this Depon<sup>t</sup> further saith not.

The Def<sup>t</sup> saith th<sup>t</sup> th<sup>e</sup> Plaintife came to him th<sup>e</sup> Defend<sup>t</sup> and was sould unto him the 23th of November 1659 and th<sup>t</sup> th<sup>e</sup> shippe came in about th<sup>e</sup> beginning of th<sup>e</sup> said monthe.

Cuthbert Musgrave aged 22 yeares and sworne in open Courte saith That th<sup>e</sup> Plaintife being brought home his Master th<sup>e</sup> Defend<sup>t</sup> said unto him Welcome home Runaway and th<sup>e</sup> Plaintife replied th<sup>t</sup> he did not run away but went away; Nor you did not steale M<sup>r</sup> Thoroughgoods Kanooe saith th<sup>e</sup> Defend<sup>t</sup> to th<sup>e</sup> Plaintife Noe replied th<sup>e</sup> Defend<sup>t</sup> I did not steale her I tooke her: Well said th<sup>e</sup> Defend<sup>t</sup> your time is not yet out; If my time be not out saith th<sup>e</sup> Plaintife for th<sup>e</sup> time I have to serve Ile make you satisfacon and this Depon<sup>t</sup> further saith not.

The Plaintife humblie requesteth of th<sup>e</sup> C<sup>t</sup> th<sup>t</sup> a Jurie may be impanel<sup>d</sup> for a more speedie issue of th<sup>e</sup> matter in difference w<sup>ch</sup> was graunted and soe accordinglie sworne to their evidence whose names are as followeth (viz<sup>t</sup>)

Will: Price foreman Rich: Morrice, Jonathan Marler; Will. Boyden; James Hussey; Nicholas Groce; John Wheeler, John Hutchinson Thomas Baker; Nicholas Emanson; James Mackey; and Leonard Greene.

[p. 98]

The Jurie requesting an ord<sup>r</sup> for allowance of their charges It is thereupon Ordered that 10th of toba<sup>c</sup> be allowed to each man of them Hereupon the Jurie goe forth and having agrreed of their verdict give it into th<sup>e</sup> Courte as followeth (viz<sup>t</sup>)

Wee of th<sup>e</sup> Jurie find noe prooffe th<sup>t</sup> th<sup>e</sup> Plaintife was Servant for 10 yeares; therefore in our Conscience he is free having served as much time as can in equitie be required, and this wee give as our verdict he is free, and ought to have his Corne and Cloathes allwaies reserving such advantage to th<sup>e</sup> Defend<sup>t</sup> as he can recover of th<sup>e</sup> Plaintife by absence of service in seaven yeares legallie proved

Ordered Therefore That th<sup>e</sup> Plaintife be free, and th<sup>t</sup> th<sup>e</sup> Defend<sup>t</sup> pay unto him his corne and Cloathes wth charges and costs of suite

Whereupon th<sup>e</sup> Plaintife preferreth his Bill of Charges as followeth

For 4 dayes attendance for M <sup>r</sup> Henly.....	120 th
For 4 dayes attendance for him.....	120
For 4 dayes attendance for Fran Jenkins.....	120
For Attorneys fees.....	060

420