Liber No. 36
Nov. 16

a sufficient Time for the whole Legislature to agree in the scheme of establishing a Seminary of Learning, that if any Circumstances should unluckily happen to prevent the Assembly from attending to this Object the Time might and undoubtedly would be lengthened, and that if unhappily contrary to our Expectation and earnest wish an Agreement therein should not within that Time be likely to be effected, it is much more prudent that the present Bill should explicitly declare what shall be done with the forty two Thousand six Hundred and Sixty six Dollars and two third parts of a Dollar, than that we should be now laying the Foundation for another Dispute, to be added to the number Subsisting, which are already too many. We have therefore returned your Honours the Bill in hopes that these Considerations will induce you to pass it.

The following Message is Sent to the Lower House together with the Bill entitled “An Act for the further Emission of Bills of Credit” by Daniel Dulany Esq̄

By the Upper House of Assembly 18.th of November 1771.

Gentlemen

Your Message of the 16.th Instant with the Bill entitled “An Act for the further Emission of Bills of Credit” seems to import that our Amendments of Bills, you call Money Bills are of late date but we must take the Liberty to observe that the Journals demonstrate the Contrary in the clearest manner and if the Course of presedents be attended to, abundant Instances must occur not only of Amendments of real Money Bills by the Upper House admitted by the Lower, but of these Bills framed in a Committee of both Houses,
