That your Committee cannot at present report what Sums of Money are due from the abovementioned Sheriffs of Saint Mary's, Worcester, Somerset, Dorchester, Cæcil, and Calvert Counties, on Account of Ordinary Licences, for want of the several Clerks Lists for those Counties which have not yet been returned to the Commissioners. Your Committee have examined the several Bonds taken by the Commissioners, for Bills of Credit, and Gold and Silver lent to sundry Persons on Interest, and compared the same with a List thereof, amounting to £.88,029:11:3 Sterling. Your Committee have also examined the State of the Eighteen Thousand Dollars emitted to change torn and defaced Bills, and find that the Commissioners have paid to sundry Persons for Bills of Credit, which
