

Liber J J The said Juro^{rs} being called Every One by his name severally answered thereunto and were Respectively sworne that they should well & truly try and true Deliverance make betweene y^e Right hono:^{ble} the Lord Proprietary & ffrancis Tyler prisoner at the barre according to their Evidence.

The said ffrancis Tyler being againe arraigned, and the Evidences against him being called vizt John Beck Arthure Carleton and John Barwell appearing & being sworne to give Evidence ag^t the said ffrancis Tyler accordingly did declare their Knowledges touching the death of the said John Beck, and the said ffrancis Tyler having liberty to Speake for himself The said Juro^{rs} withdraw to Consult upon their verdict.

who imediately appearing, and the said ffrancis Tyler being set to the barr^e, and the said Juro^{rs} being called by their names Every man answereth thereunto, and being asked by the Clerke if ffrancis Tyler were guilty of the ffelony whereof he had beene Indicted or not guilty.

The foreman answereth—Not guilty and so they say all The Clerke demanded of the Jury if he did fly for it. they reply not to their Knowledge

The Clerk Demanded of y^e Jury how John Beck named in the said Indictm^t came by his death they say that ffrancis Tyler Killed the said John Beck with a Tobacco stick in his own Defence.

Whereupon pclamation was made that if any pson could Informe his Lo^{pps} Justices or the Attorney Generall of any Treason murder or felony Comitted by the said ffrancis Tyler let them come forth & they should be heard for the prisoner stood at the barr^e upon his Deliverance, No pson appearing the said ffrancis Tyler acquitted by pclamation.

p. 496
Mary Stevens quitted by pclamation

Then was Mary Stevens set to y^e barr^e arraigned pleaded not guilty & for her Tryall put herself upon the Country, and the last named Juro^{rs} being called & sworn^e & y^e witnesses against her (vizt) Thomas Dent and Henry Hyde being likewise sworn^e, and the Court Examining the busines fully finde no prooffe of the said Indictm^t whereupon the said Mary was quitted by pclamation

Then was Justinian Gerard brought by the Sheriff and the former indictm^t against him for hoggstealing being pused by the Court & found insufficient, was by the Court quashed, and Ordered that the Attorney General Draw up a new Indictm^t ag^t the said Gerard, ag^t the next Court and that in the Interim the said Gerard Give security to appeare here the thirteenth day of ffebruary next to answeere the p^rmises.

Justinian Gerard acknowledges to owe & stand indebted to the Lord Prop^ry in the sume of 50^l sterl^g. to be Leavyed &^c.