Ralph ffishborne of the County aforesaid was Attached to answer unto Humphry Davenport that he render the said Humphry twelve hundred & thirty pounds of good sound tobacco & cask which he unjustly detaineth

Whereupon the said Humphrey by James Coursey his Attorney saith, that the said Ralph stands justly indebted to the said Humphrey in the sūme of twelve hundred & thirty pounds of tobacco as by accompt thereof ready to be produced in Court may appeare Notwithstanding the said Ralph the said tobacco nor any part thereof to the said Humphry hath paid to the daṃage of the said Humphrey two thousand pounds of tobacco, & thereupon he bringeth his suite

And the aforesaid Ralph Fishborne by Thomas Vaughan his Attorney comes & defends the injury &c requireth that the said Humphrey may prove his accompt
