

Octob<sup>r</sup> 13th 1679

Liber W. C.

Upon the peticon of Mary Symondes, that in April one thousand six hundred Seventy seven she came into this Province a servant, & was sould to M<sup>r</sup> Robert Ridgely, & by him assigned to Jacob Loockerman, & by him sould to Richard Jones who intended to make her his wife, & bound over his Cropp & gave security for paym<sup>t</sup> for her. And that the said Richard Jones tooke her away from the said Jacob & sent her to W<sup>m</sup> Guithers till he could better provide for her & marry her, & by that meanes the said Jones had the use of her body, & that she pressing him the said Jones to marry her according to his promise, the said Jones promised in the p<sup>r</sup>sence of severall wittnesses to marry her & sett her free That the said Jones is since run away, & the said Jacob pretending he hath bought her againe of Jones by y<sup>e</sup> Chancelours warrant apprehended her & threatens to make her serve out her tyme with him And therefore humbly prayed an order of this Court for her freedome Whereupon Robert Carville Attorney for the said Mary Symonds being p<sup>r</sup>sent And the said Jacob producing to the Court here a reassignment of the said Mary Symonds from the said Richard to the said Jacob Therefore itt is considered that the said Mary Symonds serve the said Jacob Lookerman the remainder of the tyme that she hath yet to serve

Octob<sup>r</sup> 15th 1679

Upon the petico<sup>n</sup> of Gerard Slye Adm<sup>r</sup> of the Goods & Chattles of Richard Chillman deceased, that the said Chillmans bookes of Accompts being much worne out & damnified by carrying them to County Courts, humbly requested an order of this Court that a true copy of any Accompt transcribed from the said bookes by the said Gerard or his booke-keeper, & proved to be a true transcript out of the aforesaid bookes before any two Justices of the peace or one of his Lordpp Councill may be taken & judged in any Court of this Province to be a sufficient prooffe of any such accompt so transcribed & proved as aforesaid Whereupon itt is considered by the Court, that no Answer be given to the aforesaid petico<sup>n</sup>, by reason there is now in force an Act of Assembly of this Province touching & concerning the p<sup>r</sup>misses

To the Right Hon<sup>ble</sup> Charles Absolute Lord & Prop<sup>ry</sup> of this Province, & the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Councill

p. 60

Most humbly sheweth

Unto yo<sup>r</sup> Lordpp, that yo<sup>r</sup> peticon<sup>r</sup> Henry Stocket the Eighteenth day of June Anno one thousand six hundred seventy Eight being cast in the Provintiall Court by Robert Peca upon a writt of Error of a judgem<sup>t</sup> obtained by yo<sup>r</sup> peticoner against the said Peca in Ann Arundell County Court, did by George Parker his Attorney move the Court for a supersedeas & writt of Error to the upper