

[p 273] In Council November 9th. 1787

Henry Gray of Charles County by his petition to the Board sets forth that at a Court held for the aforesaid County in November 1780, he was fined in the sum of twenty pounds, for Committing an Assault on a Certain Benedicta Davis. The petitioner represents, that his Offence was very trifling, amounting to no more than some small freedoms taken with the said Benedicta Davis; but short of violence or even rudeness. He further represents, that he is so poor as to be subject to no tax; that he lives by hard labour, and that it would take his years work to pay the fine. And three of the Justices of the County having recommended a remission of the same, the Board in consideration of the lightness of his Offence, the poverty of the petitioner, and the expence which he has incurred by Costs on the presentments, do Order and direct that the said fine of twenty pounds be and it is hereby remitted.
