In Council 30th. August 1788

Whereas it appears by a transcript from the Clerk of Baltimore County Criminal Court that Thomas White was fined six hundred pounds of Tobacco at June term last by the Justices of said Court for selling Liquors without Licence, and by the Petition of the said Thomas White that he has a wife and three small Children, that he owned a horse and Dray by which he supported his family, and which he is now deprived of, and that he had his house blown down in the late storm which has compleated his ruin. The Board in consideration of the indigent Circumstances of the said Thomas White, and his being recommended as an object of clemency by four of the Justices of the said Court, do direct that the said fine of six hundred pounds of Tobacco be remitted, which is hereby done.
