

George Washington, President of the United States of America.

To all whom it may concern.

James Barry having produced to me his Commission as vice-Consul for her most faithful Majesty the Queen of Portugal within the States of Maryland and Virginia; I do hereby recognize him as such, and declare him free to exercise within the said States of Maryland and Virginia, such functions and powers as may be given or permitted by the Laws of the Land to the Consuls of Nations between whom and the United States, no Treaty or Convention exists for permitting Specific powers and functions to be exercised by their Consuls reciprocally. In Testimony whereof I have caused these Letters to be made patent, and the Seal of the United States to be hereunto affixed.

Given under my hand at the city of Philadelphia the eleventh day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety one, and of the Independence of the United States of America the sixteenth.
