Commissions issued to Richard Stonestret appointed Inspector of Broad Creek Warehouse.

John Baden of Tho's of Nottingham Warehouse
Naylor Davis of Magruders Warehouse in Prince Georges County.

In Council February 9th. 1792

Michael Shreagley of Baltimore town by his Petition to the Board sets forth that he had kept a public Ordinary on Fells Point many years and had regularly procured licence as directed by Law until the fourth Monday in August last, when from the Alteration of the times of holding the Court, of which he was unacquainted 'till after it was adjourned, he conceived that he might still continue to sell liquors until the next meeting of the Court without incurring any penalty therefor, but he found himself mistaken, for at the January Court of Oyer and Terminer for the County aforesaid he was twice presented for selling liquors without licence [p. 40] and fined as appears by a transcript of the Proceedings under the hand and seal of the Clerk of the said Court Six hundred pounds of Tobacco and thirty shillings Current Money on each Presentment. The Petitioner represents that he is a Native of Germany, an old illeterate [sic] and very poor, and declares that he had no view of defrauding the public or opposing it's Laws—and four of the Justices of the Court having certified that the Petitioner is in very low Circumstances and unable to pay the fines imposed without ruin to himself and Children, and recommended him as a person worthy of Compassion. The Board do hereby order and direct that the said two fines of six hundred pounds of Tobacco and thirty shillings each, be remitted on his paying the Costs arising on the said Presentments.
