[p. 242]

In Council June 5th. 1793

By a representation from the Chief and Associate Justices of the Court of Queens Anns County, it appears that a certain Margaret Bateman has been fined by the said Court seven hundred and fifty pounds of Tobacco for keeping an Ordinary without licence. The Justices aforesaid represent that the woman is exceedingly poor and has a number of small Children who would have been a charge to the County but for her exertions. They therefore recommend a remission of the fine, and the Board in consideration of her poverty do direct that upon her paying all Costs, the fine imposed on her as aforesaid be remitted.
