In Council January 19th. 1790

By the Petition of John Duffey of Baltimore County it is represented to the Board that he has been fined by the Criminal Court for the said County in the Sum of three pounds Current Money for an assault (as appears by a Court transcript accompanying the petition) committed on a certain Francis Vintree, that the fees arising on the Proceeding against him, added to the fine, make the Sum for which he is liable, upwards of eight pounds, and that being unable to pay the same, he now lies in confinement, And the said Petitioner being recommended as an Object of Clemency by several inhabitants of Baltimore, and by three of the Justices of the Court aforesaid, The Board in consideration of his poverty, do direct that on the express Condition of the said Duffey's paying all the legal fees due on the Prosecution, the above mentioned fine of three pounds be remitted.
